

Membership Levels 2024

The Economic Development Council of Livingston County (EDCLC) partnered with Ann Arbor SPARK in 2012 to provide the Livingston County community with quality economic development services that deliver great impact. Through this partnership, Livingston County competes on a national and global stage. We have enjoyed the benefits of many new and expanded industries, as well as resources to help businesses grow and succeed right here at home.

Private sector financial support is vital to our economic development efforts in Livingston County. Below are the benefits private sector funders can receive as a thank you for supporting the Economic Development Council of Livingston County:
